

The first line of the Znamenny Chant is written on two staves, treble and bass. The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes beamed together. The lyrics "You have placed up - - - on their heads" are written below the staves. The word "up" is followed by three dashes, indicating a long note or a pause. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature.

You have placed up - - - on their heads

The second line of the Znamenny Chant continues the melody on two staves. The lyrics "crowns of pre - cious stone. They asked you for" are written below the staves. The word "pre" is followed by a dash, indicating a long note or a pause. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature.

crowns of pre - cious stone. They asked you for

The third line of the Znamenny Chant concludes the melody on two staves. The lyrics "life and you gave it to them." are written below the staves. The music is in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature, ending with a double bar line.

life and you gave it to them.